

Medical Report – Acute Bronchitis

Patient: John Doe, 58 years old

Date: 2026-01-10

Chief Complaint:

Patient presents with a persistent cough lasting for 10 days, low-grade fever, and fatigue. The cough is productive with yellow sputum.

History:

No previous history of chronic lung diseases. Non-smoker. No recent travel.

Examination:

Temperature: 38.1 °C

Lung auscultation reveals wheezing and rhonchi.

Oxygen saturation: 95% on room air.

Assessment:

Acute bronchitis likely due to viral infection.

Plan:

1. Advise rest and hydration.
2. Prescribe a short course of antitussives.
3. Reassess in one week or earlier if symptoms worsen.

Provisional Diagnosis:

- Acute bronchitis.

Follow-Up:

Return visit scheduled in 7 days for clinical reassessment.